Disclaimer

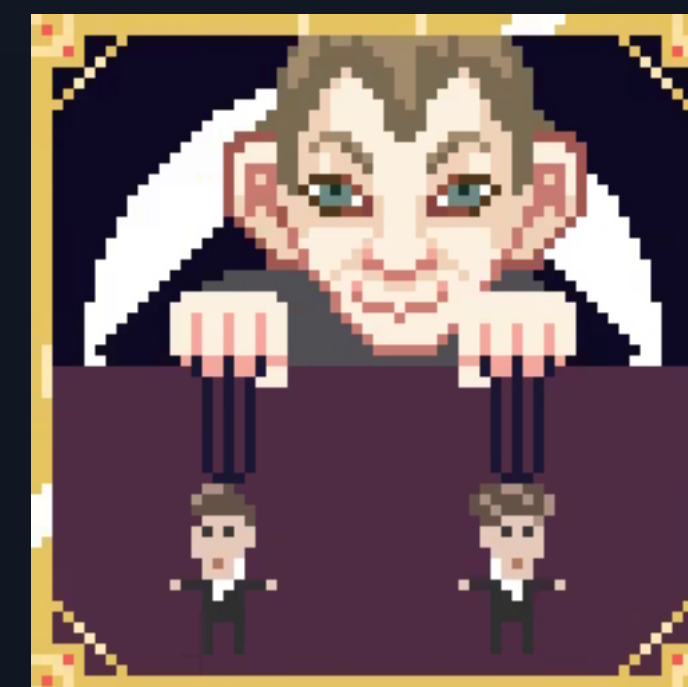

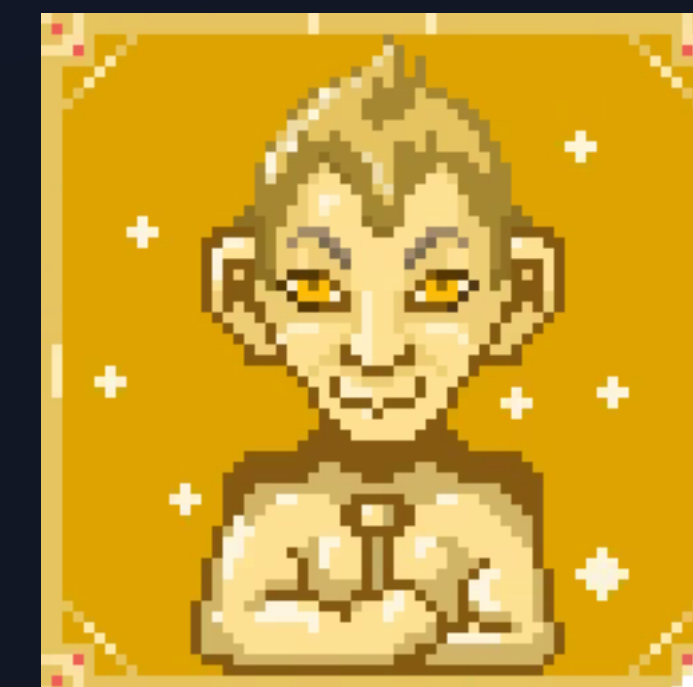

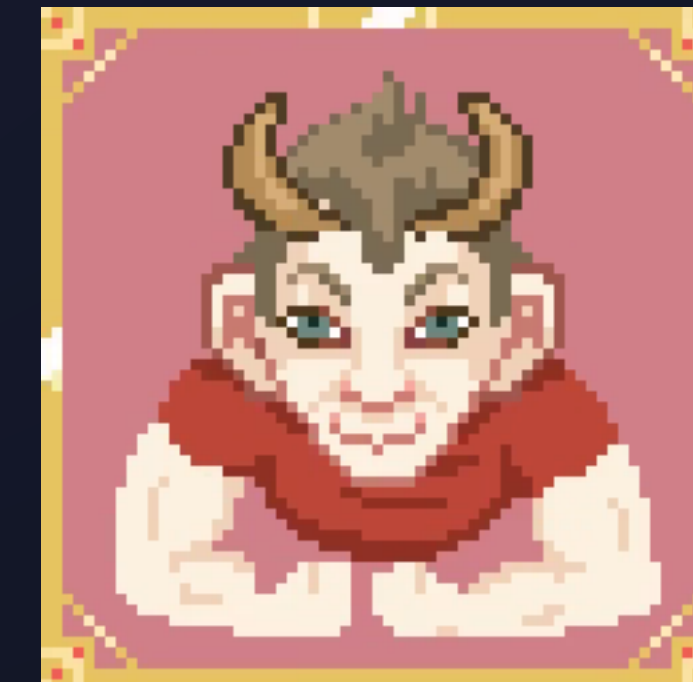

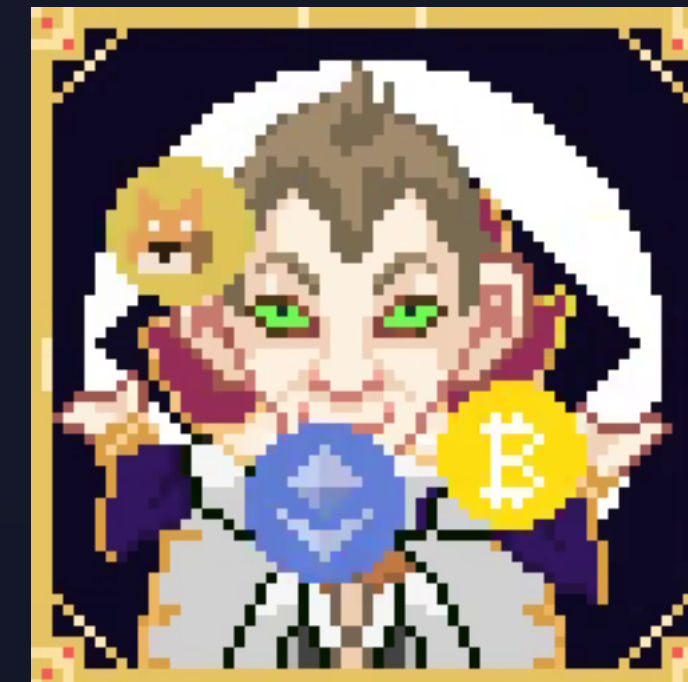

The Bogged.Finance Sniper is a pro feature, which carries a high risk for inexperienced traders. When making use of the sniper, please make note of the following considerations:

- New tokens are inherently risky investments, you are responsible for doing your own research on new tokens to ensure they are not coded or created in a way that facilitates a rugpull.
- During new token launches for highly popular listings, you may be competing against other users of the Sniper. Snipes will be processed from highest to lowest BOG holdings.
- During extremely popular launches you may be competing against custom bots, such as the bot that
